Board committees are formed when it is efficient or necessary to facilitate effective decision-making. From time to time, as deemed fit by the Board you may be requested by the Board to serve on one or more Board committees.

The Board has appointed you as member of the Audit Committee, Nominations & Remuneration Committee, Corporate Social Responsibility Committee and Finance Committee. You may seek the assistance of the Company Secretary or the Chief Financial Officer, if required, about the committee’s terms of reference, responsibilities involved and any accounting/financial matter.

Board and Committee Meetings and Time Commitment

The Board normally meets for a minimum of 4 times in a year and holds additional meetings as the occasion requires. As an Independent director you would also be required to attend a separate meeting of Independent Directors conducted at least once in a year.

In addition to routine board meetings you would be required to allow time for committee meetings wherein you are appointed as a member, General Meetings of members, preparatory work and travel, and ensure that you are in a position to make the necessary overall time commitment. By accepting this appointment, you have confirmed that you are able to allocate sufficient time to meet the expectations of your role.

Remuneration

As an independent director you are eligible for sitting fees for attending meetings of the Board or committee thereof as decided by the Board from time to time.

The Company will reimburse you for all expenses, as may be incurred by you for participation in the Board and other meetings, such as accommodation, travelling expenses etc., reasonably and properly incurred and documented.

Board and Individual Director Evaluation Processes

The performances of the board as a whole, its committees and individual directors will be evaluated annually. If, during the tenure of your directorship, there are any matters which cause you concern about your role you may discuss them with the Chairman of the board. You may also seek the assistance of the Key managerial Personnel's of the Company, as and when required, for effectively discharging your duties.

Outside Interests Including Directorships

It is accepted and acknowledged that you may have business interests other than those of the Company. You have already disclosed your interests as a shareholder, director, partner or owner of other companies, body corporate, firms or other entities as required u/s 184 of the Companies Act 2013. Please ensure that the Company is kept informed of any changes to your interests from time to time. The Board of the Company, on the basis of certificate of Independence submitted by you, has determined you to be independent according to clause 49 of the Listing regulation read with Section 149 and Schedule IV of the Companies Act, 2013.

Shareholdings by Directors in the Company

Directors when buying or selling shares are expected to strictly observe the provisions of the Company's constitution, ACL Code of Conduct for prohibition of Insider Trading, the Company's own internal rules and all relevant legislative and regulatory procedures including, in particular, Stock Exchange listing requirements.

Induction and Development Processes

All directors are expected to remain current on how to best discharge their responsibilities as directors of the Company including keeping abreast of changes and trends in economic, political, social, financial and legal climates and governance practices.

Confidentiality

All information acquired during your appointment is confidential to the Company and should not be disclosed either during your appointment or following the expiry of your term or vacation (by whatever means) to third parties except as permitted by law and with prior clearance from the Chairman & Managing Director.

This letter constitutes the entire terms and conditions of your appointment and no waiver or modification thereof shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

Please confirm your acceptance by signing and returning to me the enclosed copy of this letter.

We look forward to your association with us.

Yours sincerely

For Amrit Corp. Limited
